NOTICE ID:

If you owe money to a state, local, or government agency, California law allows us to intercept your state income tax refund up to the amount owed to the agency. The agency reports what you owe them, and we deduct that amount from your state income tax refund. (California Government Code Sections 926.8 and 12419)

We received information from the agency listed below that you owe them money, so we decreased your state income tax refund accordingly. We forwarded the collected funds to:
